

In Memory of the Millions of Ukrainians Murdered by Starvation
during the Holodomor of 1932-1933

the United Ukrainian Organizations of New York (UCCA Branch)

is urging the Ukrainian American community to participate in our

FOOD DRIVE

to feed the hungry of New York City

which will take place on Saturday, November 15, 2008

from 9AM until 1PM

at

DAG HAMMARSKJOLD PLAZA

47th Street (between 1st and 2nd Avenues), NYC

Food donated at the Food Drive can include: dry food, baby food, and all types of canned goods, as long as they are all within the expiration date and in the original packaging.

A Photo Exhibit Depicting the Holodomor will also be on display at

Dag Hammerskjold Plaza during the Food Drive.

At 1:00PM

participants will embark on a solemn walk from 47th Street to St. Patrick's Cathedral (5th Avenue, between 50th and 51st Streets) to participate in the 2:00PM National Observance to Commemorate Ukraine's Genocide of 1932-1933.

We ask those in attendance to wear either dark clothes to signify mourning, or Ukrainian national blouses/shirts.
